

Run Ins

The taximeter will start running when the driver accepts the booking. The taxi will arrive showing the standard run in up to a maximum of £4.20 on the taxi meter depending on the distance travelled by the driver to reach the pick up address. The taximeter will continue running throughout the journey until your destination is reached at which point the cost of the journey, inclusive of the run in charge, and extras will be displayed on the taxi meter. Please note that the Taxi Meter charges are strictly controlled by Transport for London

All hiring's are subject to a standard £2.00 booking fee, as clearly itemised on the taxi fare chart displayed inside the taxi, and will be charged by your driver as an extra. Your driver will be happy to provide a receipt if required.

Gratuity is discretionary

Londonblacktaxi.net shall have no liability if the cost of a journey exceeds any taxi quote given. Any taxi quote given is supplied and accepted on the basis that it is an estimate only, net of any extra's or handling fee's and is based upon the conditions and tariff in place at the time.

Londonblacktaxi.net shall have no liability for any damage, loss, costs, claims or expenses suffered by you by reason of anything outside our reasonable control. Please ensure that any item, including valuables and personal effects brought into the taxi with you are removed from the taxi at the end of the journey. Any item found in the back of a taxi, but not belonging to the current passenger, should be brought to the attention of the driver as soon as possible.
